

dining in and out

Taste B.C. wines for charity

From page 39

the Lichi Li at LDB specialty stores (but not the ginger, which is still under the BCLDB's radar! What's with that?).

Look for it at better private wine stores, including 25th Street Liquor Store.

Vincor International presents Grapes for Humanity, May 2nd, a fundraiser for the charity of the same name (co-founded by wine guy Tony Aspler) that supports victims of landmines.

You can taste wines from all of Vincor's Okanagan properties (Hawthorne Mountain Vineyards, Inniskillin Okanagan, Jackson-Triggs Okanagan, Nk'Mip Cellars, See Ya Later Ranch and Sumac Ridge) as well as from Goundrey, Hogue Cellars, Kim Crawford, Kumala and R.H. Phillips. Westin Bayshore, 6 p.m.-8 p.m.

Reserve tickets at ryan@ccltd.ca or call 604-904-9792. $20 cash donation.

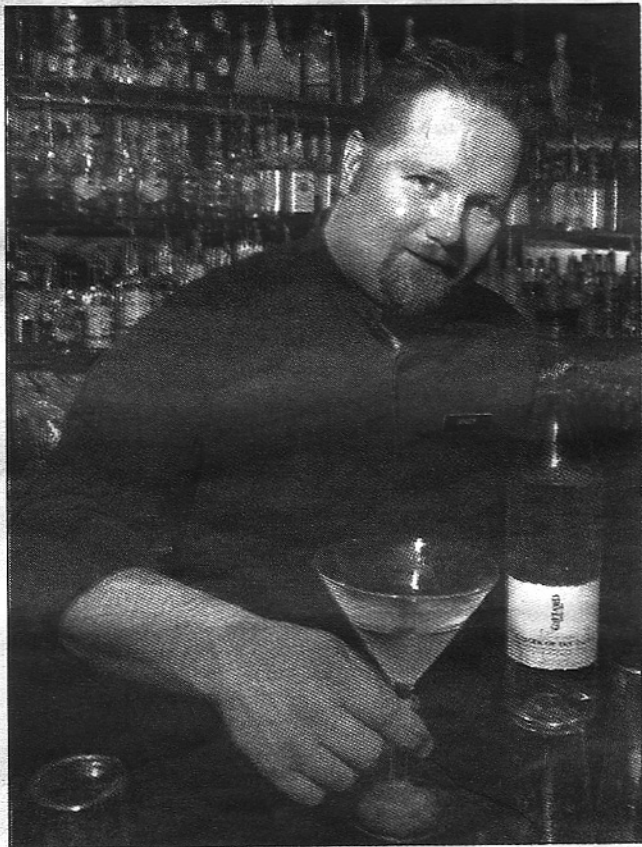

photo Tim Pawsey

GOTHAM Steakhouse's Steve Schmieltenknop creates stellar martinis with Giffard creme de fruit liqueurs.